

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF EARLY BIRD REGISTRATION!!!

AAIT 2019 ANNUAL CONFERENCE & WORKSHOPS

April 13 & 14, 2019

AAIT 2019 is just around the corner. Come meet with renowned industry experts:

- Learn how to raise awareness for your profession
- Stay competitive by finding out how to use new technologies for interpreting as well as translation assignments
- Understand the changing landscape of our profession
- Learn about words, their power and context and how they apply to inclusive language
- Become aware of the ethical considerations and boundaries of ASL interpreters
- Don't miss out on the panel discussion with our speakers to wrap up an intense day of learning!

PLUS attend LANGUAGE-NEUTRAL professional development workshops for seasoned translators and interpreters

- Delve into the special skills required to interpret for Special Education, gain an overview of the laws affecting this process and benefit from ample time for practice of a variety of situations frequently encountered in an educational setting.
- Gain a better grasp of how to leverage terminology resources to aid in your translation work, take into account syntactical differences to improve translation style, and learn numerous strategies for writing more authentically when translating.

We have more good news to share:

- Earn up to 10 ATA CEU's, 7.5 IMIA CEUs and 7.75 CCHI CEU's
- Build your own conference: sign up for the conference, any of the workshops, or both

- Win amazing door prizes
- Use the Early Bird discount, and the AAIT discount to save on registration
- ATA and MING Members also save on registration
- Student discounts
- Get your business cards ready and come meet our exhibitors!

Special thanks to Translation Station and LATN for their support as SILVER sponsors, to Professional Linguistics for the support as BRONZE sponsor, and to other sponsors who make this event possible: CulturalLink, Georgia Commission on Interpreters, inLingo, MING, universe Language Solutions, CCHI, Cross Cultural Communications, Herb Bastin, SeSo Inc., NAJIT, Westbridge Solutions, and our Conference Planning Committee.
